Section 1242, United States Code, authorizes the Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries (Joint Board) to collect this information. The primary use of the information is to enforce and administer the regulations of the Joint Board governing practice as an actuary under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA). Information may be disclosed to: public authorities for use in law enforcement and in connection with employment, contracting, licensing, and other benefits; courts and other adjudicative bodies and the Department of Justice for litigation purposes; employees of the Department of Labor or the Department of the Treasury for purposes of administering ERISA, including determinations concerning enrollment and discipline; investigative offices of other agencies for fuller development of facts concerning enrollment and discipline; the general public for verifying an individual's actuarial enrollment status. Applying for renewal of enrollment is voluntary; however, providing the information requested on this form is a requirement to obtain the benefit of renewal of enrollment. Failure to provide the requested information could delay or prevent processing of your application. Providing false information could subject you to penalties.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no person is required to respond to, nor shall any person be subject to a penalty for failure to comply with, a collection of information subject to the requirements of the Paperwork Reduction Act, unless that collection of information displays a currently valid OMB Control Number. Public reporting burden for this collection of information is estimated to average 30 minutes per response, including the time for reviewing the instructions, searching existing data sources, gathering and maintaining the data needed, and completing and reviewing the collection of information. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden to: Joint Board for the Enrollment of Actuaries c/o IRS/Office of Professional Responsibility; SE:OPR; 1111 Constitution Avenue, NW; Washington, DC 20224.
